CRANKS CONQUERED

Disorders in Spain Are Dying Out.

STUDENTS HAVE GROWN TIRED.

Closing of the Universities Have Brought the Recalcitrants Into Submission. A Few Disorders Have Occurred in Valencia, but No Serious Damage Was Done. Enthalie Wishes For Peace.

MADRID, March 9.—Several foreign military officers, including some Englishmen have offered their services to the Spanish minister of war, Senor Marcelo de Azaraga, in the event of war between Spain and America. The official belief, however, is expressed that no conflict will occur.

Patriotic demonstrations have occurred throughout the country since the action of the United States congress on the Cuban question and many wealthy Spaniards are offering money to the government. Several towns also have sent messages offering goods and the lives of their citizens in defense of the country. The ship owners of Seville have offered to place 50 steamers at the disposal of the government. In the Basque province a subscription has been opened to present a warship to the government.

The disorders have ceased in this city, and the state of Madrid has been tranquil since the university was closed.

The queen regent was cheered yesterday upon leaving church by the crowds in the street.

The gendarmes dispersed a crowd who were cheering in front of the French consulate at Barcelona as an expression of a hope for a Franco-Spanish alliance.

Enthalie's Wishes.

NEW YORK, March 9.—The World this morning publishes the following copyright dispatch from Infanta Enthalie of Spain:

"Sweet remembrance of the affectionate reception given to me by the people of the United States when I went to their country, representing my own, at the festivities in honor of Columbus, lives, and ever will live, in my heart.

"During those festivities strong proofs of mutual esteem were given by both countries. I became convinced and still am persuaded that never, never should that traditional friendship be broken, much less should peace be disturbed.

"Being apart from affairs of state, I can only pray God fervently that cordial relations between the two countries may never cease."

Disorders Continue in Valencia.

VALENCIA, March 9.—This city was again in a turbulent state yesterday over the condition of the relations between Spain and the United States. A mob gathered and was proceeding toward the American consulate with the intention of causing a disturbance there, but a force of police and gendarmes opposed their passage through the streets. A desperate struggle ensued and several persons were wounded, including a gendarme. The mob succeeded in entering the Plaza de Toros by destroying the gates leading to the bull ring. They then held a meeting in the arena. A state of siege was proclaimed.

Spanish Language Not Official.

MADRID, March 9.—The United States minister, Mr. Taylor, has refused the resignations of Spaniards acting as United States consuls when they were written in Spanish on the ground that that language is not the official language of the United States.

STEAMSHIP OVERDUE.

She Carried 131 People From San Francisco to the Orient.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 9.—The Pacific Mail Steamship company's big liner, the City of Rio de Janeiro, which left this port for the Orient heavily laden on the 6th of last month, should have arrived at Yokohama on the 23d of February, yet not a word has been heard from her.

The Rio left here with 136 people on board, all told. Of these four were cabin passengers and there were in the steerage 10 Europeans, 10 Japanese and 22 Chinese. The crew consisted of 30 white people and 79 Chinese.

The one theory upon which the companies agree, in basing their greatest hopes is that the Rio, by force of bad weather or other circumstances, was compelled to pass Yokohama without making her usual stop there. This would not be considered an altogether unusual occurrence. It has happened several times during the past 12 years to other steamers in the service of the company. Should this be the case there will be a still longer period of anxiety, for nothing can possibly be heard from her in that event until she reaches Hong-Kong. Many shipping men feel hopeful that she will shortly be reported from the Chinese port.

PITTSBURGH, March 9.—The shovel factory of Hubbard & Company on Butler street, was destroyed by fire at an early hour this morning. Loss about $100,000; insurance $50,000. The origin of the fire is a complete mystery. The factory was one of the largest in the country.

MASSOWAH, March 9.—The commandant at Adigrat telegraphs under date of March 2 that the rebels were then within a few kilometers. "We have plenty of ammunition and provisions for a month," the commandant continues, "which we hope to extend by going on short rations. We will do our duty till death."

BODIES IN A BARREL.

An Old Man and a New-Born Babe Found in a Chicago Alley.

CHICAGO, March 9.—Carefully concealed in a barrel and covered with a mass of old rags and cotton the dead bodies of a gray-haired man and a newborn babe were found in an alley in Hyde Park yesterday. In consequence the police are working on what they consider a double murder. Only one clue is in their possession, and on the discovery of the identity of a woman, as yet unknown to the police depends the possible solution of the mystery.

Early yesterday forenoon the office in Ralston's Hyde Park morgue was rung up on the telephone, and a woman, who declined to give either her name or address, asked if the body of a man had been found in Hyde Park. The office attendant replied in the negative and then questioned the woman, but his best efforts failed to get any information of a decided character, although she told the clerk she was looking for a man who was missing. She was finally prevailed upon to give his description, which she did in minute detail. She furnished the morgue attendant by saying in conclusion that he would certainly learn about the case later on.

Four hours later the barrel with its ghastly contents was discovered in the rear of the house at 4829 Indiana avenue. The body of the man tallied in almost every respect with the description furnished by the mysterious woman over the telephone wire, and the police unhesitatingly connected her with the case. In the barrel, also, was the body of a boy not over 10 days old.

J. A. Nurse, residing in Prairie avenue, while emptying a pan of ashes in the alley at the rear of his home, discovered a barrel which aroused his curiosity. Breaking open the head of the receptacle, he was horrified upon seeing the huddled body of an old man inside. It was entirely nude and frightfully mutilated. Covering the corpse was a thick layer of cotton. The police were at once notified, and the barrel was removed to the morgue. The head and trunk gave every evidence of foul play, the skull showing several deep wounds. On the left forearm were tattooed five spots close together. There was nothing else to give any clue to the man's identity.

After the severed pieces of the body had been lifted from the barrel the body of the baby was found. It was nude, save for a thin flannel shirt, and there were two marks on the side of the head, apparently made with a blunt instrument.

The body of the older male was that of a man between 45 and 50 years of age.

The police laugh at the theory that it was the work of medical students and are positive in their statements that the man and child were murdered.

JIM CROW CARS.

Suits for $30,000 Filed By Negroes Ejected From Whites' Coaches.

LOUISVILLE, March 9.—Three suits for $10,000 each were filed in the United States district court Saturday against the Chesapeake, Ohio and Southwestern railroad company for ejecting negroes from the trains who refused to conform with the provisions of the separate coach law.

Though the suits are brought separately, the same attorneys represent each case. Judge Barr has long ago decided that the separate coach law is unconstitutional and will award damages in any suit that is brought. The state, however, compels the railroad to enforce the law, and the negroes can sue in the state courts and recover damages if they are not provided with separate coaches.

Pearl Bryan's Murderers in Court.

CINCINNATI, March 9.—After hearing the matter of extradition of Walling and Jackson, indicted by the grand jury of Campbell county, Ky., for the murder of Pearl Bryan, Judge Buchwalter Saturday recognized the right of the Kentucky authorities to the custody of the prisoners and dismissed the habeas corpus proceedings, but granted a stay of seven days to permit counsel for the defendants to appear before the circuit court on error, where the judge's ruling on the habeas corpus proceedings will be reviewed. The prisoners will thus remain in the custody of Sheriff Archibald in the Cincinnati jail until a decision by the circuit court.

"Railroad Bill" Shot and Killed.

MONTGOMERY, Ala., March 9.—"Railroad Bill," the terror of Louisville and Nashville train hands, was killed in a store at Attmore, south Alabama, at 9 o'clock Saturday night by three deputy sheriffs. He murdered a sheriff and had a dozen train hands in the past three years, and thousands of dollars and several good men's lives have been lost in chasing him. A big knife was found in his pants leg and two horse pistols in his belt. The negroes at Attmore threatened to take his body, and a posse was ordered from Brewton to assist the officers in charge. A reward of several thousand dollars was offered for Bill dead or alive.

Difficulties of Forming a Cabinet.

ROME, March 9.—There is much difficulty being found in the task of forming a new ministry. Signor Saracco has declined the responsibility, while the attempt to form a Saracco-Rudini combination equally failed. It has just been announced, however, that the Marquis di Rudini has succeeded in forming a cabinet with himself as premier and minister of the interior, General Ricotti, minister of war; Signor Eina, minister of foreign affairs; Senor Peruzzi, minister of the treasury, and Admiral Raebia, minister of marine.

WHAT THEY WILL DO

Program of the Senate and House.

CUBAN QUESTION COMES FIRST.

House Resolutions Will Be Passed by the Senate With but Little Opposition. Election Contest to Be Discussed. Appropriation Bills Will Be the Leading Subjects in the House.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—The Cuban question will be revived in the senate this week on the proposition to accept the report of the conference committee agreeing to the house resolution. There is a possibility of considerable debate upon the subject, but on the other hand the report may be accepted after but a brief exchange of views. It is believed that under no circumstances the question will be prolonged, and there is little doubt that the house resolutions will be agreed to.

The Dupont Delaware election case also will continue to receive attention during the week. Senator Turpie will speak in opposition to the seating of Mr. Dupont and will be followed when opportunity affords by either Senator Pritchard or Senator Chandler for Dupont. It is not believed that the debate on this question will be concluded during the present week.

The bill to prevent the extermination of the Alaskan seals has been made a special order for Thursday next, but whether it will be taken up at that time will probably depend upon whether an amicable arrangement can be made concerning the Dupont case. There is no disposition on the part of the managers of the seal bill to prevent consideration of the Dupont matter. The seal bill will provoke discussion when reached. It is understood to be Senator Morgan's purpose to discuss it at length.

Senator Butler has given notice of a speech on Wednesday on his bill to prohibit the further issuance of government bonds.

If the committee on public lands gets in its report on the Arizona land bill, recommending its passage over the president's veto it may be taken up and it will probably arouse considerable discussion.

Program of the House.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—The house will continue work on the appropriation bills, and dispose of one, possibly two, of the contested election cases. The postoffice appropriation bill will first be passed. The naval appropriation bill is the next supply bill in order.

During the week the Aldrich-Robbins case from the Fourth Alabama district, the report of which is against the Democratic contest, will be called up, and if time is offered, the report of the committee in the Benoit-Boatner case, from the Fifth Louisiana, declaring the seat occupied by Mr. Boatner vacant, will also be acted upon.

STRUCK DOWN AND KILLED.

Fate of a Well Known Merchant of Hempstead, Long Island.

NEW YORK, March 9.—Stephen Powell, a well known merchant of Hempstead, L. I., was struck down and killed within a few feet of his own door late Saturday night. The murdered man, who was 70 years of age, was returning home after closing his shoe store shortly before midnight.

He was found lying on the road by two of his friends, who saw two men running down the road. It was found that Mr. Hammer was bleeding to death. He had received a terrible cut across the eye and another across the wrist and still another on the back of the head, it is believed, from the blunt end of an ax or hammer, which almost crushed in his skull. He was taken to his home, where he died within half an hour.

Mr. Powell was in the habit of carrying a large sum of money, and it is thought that robbery was the object of the murderers. They were interrupted in their work, however, and secured no booty. Three negroes have been arrested on suspicion of the murder. They are Vanremscheer Simpson, John A. Wayne and Arthur Mayhew.

Puddlers' Wages Reduced.

YONKOSTOWN, O., March 9.—President Garkind, of the Amalgamated association, and Secretary Nutt, of the Manufacturers' association, have completed the canvass of the reports filled by manufacturers for sales of merchant bar iron during January and February, and found there had been a slump in prices compared to the closing months last year, causing a reduction for the next sixty days to puddlers of 50 cents per ton, and reduction of 4 per cent. to finishers. The wage scale during March and April will be the base of the scale $4 per ton for puddling.

Had a Worthless Check.

OMAHA, March 9.—A man whose real name is ascertained to be Alex Miller was arrested yesterday evening for attempting to pass a check for $150, to which he had, it is charged, forged the name of Drabo & Company, of Pittsburgh, of which firm he claimed to be a member.

Fire in Louisville.

LOUISVILLE, March 9.—Fire broke out in warehouse No. 3 of the Union Warehouse company at 1 o'clock this morning entailing a loss of $175,000 in contents which consisted of merchandise, hay and farming implements and $30,000 in the building; all covered by insurance.

HIS LAST VOYAGE.

Henry Walke Dies From La Grippe at His Brooklyn Home.

NEW YORK, March 9.—Rear Admiral Henry Walke died at his home in Brooklyn at 3:05 yesterday afternoon. Rear Admiral Walke has been suffering since Tuesday last with a severe attack of the grip, but the immediate cause of death was heart failure. Mr. Walke, the family physician, had very little hopes of his recovery, and the family was prepared for the worst. For some time before he passed away he was unconscious. The deceased's wife and family were at his bedside when he expired. He leaves a widow, three sons and two daughters.

Henry Walke was born in Virginia 85 years ago. His father, Anthony Walke, was a college student at Yale with John C. Calhoun. When quite young the deceased was taken to Ohio, receiving his education at the Chillicothe academy. In 1827 he became a midshipman in the navy, being assigned to the frigate Albatross, under the command of Lieutenant Farragut. He was present at the surrender of Vera Cruz, during the Mexican war, being executive officer of the brig Vesuvius.

During the war of the rebellion he commanded the gunboats Taylor and Lexington and protected General Grant's army while it was making its retreat on the transports. He was also at the battle of Fort Henry in charge of the gunboat Carondelet. He was successful in getting the Carondelet past Island No. 10 on April 4, 1862, while the enemy's shots fell on it like hail. For this piece of work the commander was honorably mentioned. In 1862 for his bravery he was made a captain; in 1866 a commodore, and a rear admiral in 1870. One year later he retired, having the proud distinction of being the first officer to do so voluntarily to give the younger men a chance.

PENITENTIARY ROBBED.

Convicts Enter Into a Scheme With a Farmer for the Sale of Goods.

WATKIN, Wis., March 9.—A wholesale robbery of the penitentiary contractor by convicts in the Wisconsin prison has been discovered. Convicts engaged in the robbery received money, various luxuries and liquor in exchange for the goods. For some time past Warden Roberts has suspected that illicit traffic was being carried on and discoveries were made Saturday night which led to the arrest of Arthur Miller, a farmer living near the prison, and Fremont Fairbanks, a farmer.

R. C. Russell, a convict trusty employed in farm work, several months ago arraigned with other convicts and with Miller, it is alleged, to receive and dispose of socks from the knitting department of the penitentiary. Money, whisky and other articles received in exchange for the goods were divided among the convicts. Miller and Fairbanks confessed, and told where large quantities of the stolen goods could be found. Russell was placed in solitary confinement and Miller and Fairbanks were held for trial.

BOILING TAR OVERFLOWED.

Five Standard Oil Company Employees Severely Burned.

NEW YORK, March 9.—Five workmen employed by the Standard Oil company at Bayonne, N. J., were severely burned yesterday by the overflow of boiling tar from one of the big tanks at the company's yards. The injured men are Michael Doyle and Timothy Callahan, seriously burned about the feet, legs and arms; taken to Bayonne hospital; James Donohue, John St. John and Ernest Ohlsen, feet and ankles burned.

The men were at work at stills from which the tar oil was being pumped into a tank. The tar boiled over the sides of the tank in a torrent and flooded the floor. It was found impossible to close the pipes, and the men made a dash to escape. The boiling fluid poured over them, however, before they could get away. No one was fatally injured, but all received very serious burns.

ELECTRIC CARS COLLIDE.

Thirty-Six Passengers Injured. Five Are Thought to Be Fatally.

ST. LOUIS, March 9.—A disastrous collision occurred about 5 o'clock last night on the newly completed Kirkwood electric railroad, which connects the suburban town of Kirkwood, ten miles out, with this city. It is a single-track road, the cars passing one another on switches.

While the car heavily laden was waiting for another to pass the switch became turned in some manner throwing both together. Both cars were badly smashed and 36 passengers received injuries more or less serious. Five of these are thought to have been fatally hurt.

RICHMOND, March 9.—In the jail at Danville Saturday afternoon Deputy Sergeant Cook was shot three times and perhaps fatally wounded, by a negro named George Evans, who was at this time of the corporation court sentenced to the penitentiary for burglary. Evans made his escape. The city is in a fever of excitement, and if the fugitive is caught, he will undoubtedly be lynched.

Robbed and Laid on the Track.

SHELBYVILLE, Ind., March 9.—Frank Frick, while taking a short cut home along the railroad at night, was waylaid by two men, who knocked him senseless and robbed him of $8. When he recovered consciousness he found that the men had laid him with his head on the rail to be killed by the next train. Frick thinks the men preceded him from this city.

BIG BATTLE IN CUBA

Important Engagement According to Spanish Reports.

CENSORSHIP NEWS OF COURSE.

Seven Thousand Insurgents Driven From Their Position By the Spaniards Who Only Lost Three Killed and Nineteen Wounded. Several Other Skirmishes Reported All With the Same Result.

HAVANA, March 9.—An important engagement is officially reported to have taken place in the central portion of Matanzas province. Colonel Vienna reports that he met a force of insurgents numbering 7,000 and led by Maximo Gomez, Antonio Maceo, Lamer and others at the plantation of Diamante and Arcas, in the district of Cedral-Falso. They were dislodged from their positions by the troops and made a precipitous flight toward San Miguel de los Cabanos. The insurgent loss is reported to be 71 killed and 12 wounded left on the field, as well as numerous others carried off. The insurgents also lost 200 horses. The loss of the troops was three killed and 19 wounded.

The columns of Lieutenant Colonel Lozada fought the insurgents at San Juan, Sancti Spiritus.

A coast inspector has been killed by the insurgents.

Volunteer troops at the plantation of Ovidio fought the insurgent leader Diamante, two privates being wounded and two taken prisoner.

The insurgents attacked, plundered and destroyed a passenger train from Cardenas. The train was carrying ammunition to a fort under construction at Artemisa. The firing was done by a supposed to be that of Perico Delgado. The train's escort was taken, the insurgents sustained a loss of men and horses.

PASSENGER'S REPORT.

A Different Story Told From the Consular Telegram Dispatches.

TAMPA, Fla., March 9.—Among the passengers arriving from Cuba yesterday was an insurgent emissary with important dispatches from Antonio Maceo to the junta in New York. This gentleman is highly educated and gives some interesting facts about the progress of the revolution and of plans which General Gomez intends putting into effect. Maceo, he reports, is now at Cano, five miles from Havana, with 8,000 men. At Cano the guards had a skirmish Friday morning. The people of Havana are alarmed, but General Weyler, the agent says, does nothing to disperse the encamped enemy, who are occupying strong positions all over the island awaiting Weyler's promised attack.

Among other things mentioned in Gomez's report is that January 1 to February 20 he captured from the Spaniards 2,800 Manner and Remington rifles, 1,000 other miscellaneous arms; 250 rounds of ammunition by intercepting convey trains, and the capture of small forts. To be sold pieces were also taken. Maceo now has 6,000 well armed men and 2,000 miscellaneous equipment. His losses at Paso Real, Camielma and Alquisar were 250 men and 40 officers, these are all the losses he mentioned. Since Weyler's proclamation July 8, 800 men have joined the insurrection in Province of Puerto Principe. General Gomez, the agent says, has returned there to raise an army of 25,000 in order that he may by April, in conjunction with Maceo's forces and others, consolidate an army of 10,000 men near Havana, and be prepared for an aggressive campaign.

The insurgents say that if the United States recognizes them they will win within a year; if not, they will ultimately win, but the end will be a layer.

TWO MEN INJURED.

Freight Train Wreck on the Chicago and Erie Railroad Near Lima, O.

LIMA, O., March 9.—Fast freight No. 1 on the Chicago and Erie railroad struck a defective switch at the Ohio Southern crossing Saturday morning over the engine and seven cars. Brakeman C. Durrant, who was riding on the engine, was badly injured, as was Fireman Myers. Engineer George Dinaldes escaped with a few slight injuries. Brakeman Durrant was beneath the wreck for five hours, and then one leg had to be chopped off to save him. The brakeman and fireman were taken to the depot and medical attendance secured, but it is thought they can not live.

It was snowing very hard at the time, and the engineer could not see far in advance of his engine. He did not discover anything was wrong until his engine began bumping along on the ties. The engine and cars are a total wreck, and about 100 hogs were killed.

NEW YORK, March 9.—The remains of Archbishop Konrigh were yesterday afternoon removed from the archiepiscopal residence, on Landell boulevard, to the old cathedral on Walnut street, where they will lie in state until Wednesday, when the funeral will be held.

Bill Nye's Will.

ASHEVILLE, N. C., March 9.—The late Edgar W. Nye left his property to his wife in fee, and she is made executrix. The will is very short, covering only two sheets of note paper, in his own handwriting. No estimate has been made of the value of the estate.

SENATOR BLACKBURN and his crowd of earnest workers have evidently got the Republicans at Frankfort badly rattled. They deserted their own nominee Saturday and stumped to Carlisle in a wild effort to prevent Blackburn from winning. Blackburn didn't win, but his friends expect him to get there to-day.

The Philadelphia Record says: "There is no Democrat in the United States who better deserves the nomination for the Presidency than John Griffin Carlisle. He is one of the foremost men in the country, and one of the ablest and purest of our public men." The Record adds that it would support him with all the energy of which it is capable, as "on all of the political and economic issues which now divide public opinion in the United States, Mr. Carlisle stands committed to sound Democratic policies."

BICYCLE RIDING.

A Distinguished Physician Regards Such Exercise as Very Healthful.

Dr. Henry J. Garrigue, Obstetric Surgeon to the New York Maternity Hospital, Gynecologist to St. Mark's Hospital, and Professor of Gynecology and Obstetrics in the New York School of Clinical Medicine; author of "Practical Guide to Antiseptic Midwifery," "Text-book of Diseases of Women," in the January Forum says: "From a medical standpoint bicycling is valuable both as a prophylactic and as a curative agent. Like other outdoor exercises it takes its votaries away from the vitiated air of closed rooms; but it has several advantages peculiarly its own. It is less expensive and is safer than horseback riding. For the female sex it is also healthier; has much more variety and interest than walking, except in localities that offer such steep ascents and descents that the bicycle can not be used. It also allows the rider to see much more and to cover a much greater distance in same time. It has the advantage over games that it can be indulged in for a longer time without causing fatigue or becoming tedious.

"Although we have seen that certain groups of muscles come chiefly into play, all the muscles of the body are used more or less, and are strengthened. Good fresh air is plentifully drawn into the lungs, and the capacity of these organs is increased, especially by maintaining the straight position in riding. A person who only works and walks hardly ever fills his lungs; but the bicyclist needs all the air he can inspire, and good respiration causes a more perfect oxidation of the blood, and good blood means healthy tissues, strong nerves, and normal secretions. Normal peptic juices digest all food. The elimination of waste material through the skin and lungs is increased; which also purifies the blood. The whole nervous system is highly benefited by bicycling. The rider must constantly use the senses of hearing, seeing, and feeling in order to avoid collisions, direct his machine, and keep his equilibrium. This exercise, therefore, is in a high degree apt to draw the mind away from its usual pursuits and the cares of daily life. It is highly exhilarating and promotes sociability, since it is both pleasanter and safer to ride in company than alone. In women it is apt to overcome the impulsiveness and whimsicality which render so many of them unhappy.

"If bicycling is an excellent preventive of disease and a promoter of good health, it is of no less value as a remedy for certain pathological conditions. By its effect on respiration and digestion, bicycling becomes a potent remedy for anemia, that condition of the blood which consists in a diminution of the red blood corpuscles, and shows itself in pallor of the skin and the mucous membranes. Numerous nervous troubles are relieved or cured by this exercise, such as neurasthenia, or nervous prostration, a condition usually due to overwork or worry, and in which the normal strength is lost, and the slightest exertion causes fatigue, physical and mental exhaustion.

The same holds good in regard to headache, insomnia and neuralgia. Among the nervous affections benefited by bicycling may also be included that troublesome disease, asthma, a cramp-like contraction of the muscles of the bronchial tubes, which causes a painful sensation of choking. In the beginning of asthma where mucus of the lung tissue becomes condensed and less pervious, moderate bicycling is helpful. Many diseases of the intestinal canal—such as dyspepsia, constipation and hemorrhoids—yield to the effects of wheeling. A case has recently come to the writer's knowledge in which the stiffness remaining after a fracture of the leg, was successfully treated by riding a bicycle."

CAPITAL GOSSIP.

A. F. C. Pens Another Interesting Letter From Washington City.

Talmage's Sermons—The President. Sight Seers—A Kentuckian's Mascot—Other Matters.

(Correspondence of the Bulletin.)

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 3rd, 1896.

You have all heard, no doubt, of the old farmer who said he could not talk politics, because "politics always went to his head." Well, if he lived in Washington, and all the political talk went to his head, he would indeed be in a most deplorable condition.

This being the political headquarters of the greatest politicians on earth, politics as a matter of course is the stock in trade, and "cens lee" from January 1st to December 31st, year in and year out.

It is pretty well understood now that President Cleveland will not again be a candidate for President. Mr. Cleveland did not authorize us to announce that he would not run, but you may consider him eliminated from the Democratic nomination.

With Cleveland out of the race many a cuckoo will turn crite, and point with glee to the "mistakes" he made, etc.

Now as far as we think Cleveland is certainly the ablest, sincerest and greatest President the country has had since Lincoln. We have been a persistent and consistent Cleveland advocate, and have voted for him three times, and would vote for him again if he were to run.

President Cleveland has suffered very much, though, from some unfortunate and unwise selections in his Cabinet appointments. Notably the lamented Gresham should not have been elevated to the premiership over the heads of much worthier and sounder Democrats.

Hoke Smith, Secretary of the Interior, was the Democratic hoodlum, and the pension policy he inaugurated at the beginning of the present administration alone would have sufficed to damn the record and blast the hopes of any political party.

"And there are others." Such as Morton, the great man who refused to comply with the law, and stole out the usual quota of seed to an expectant public and many clamorous Congressmen until he was compelled to do so by law. Then there is Mr. Bowler, Comptroller of the Treasury, whose autocratic if not mischievous action in the sugar bounty question disgusted and disappointed thousands of good Democrats.

There are any number of so called Democrats who claim to be hostile to Cleveland and who are always clamoring for his scalp.

This reminds us of the fable of the party of men who went out to hunt for a lion and meeting a man they inquired:

"Have you seen any lion tracks around here?"

"No," said the man, "I have not seen any lion tracks, but I saw a lion go in that thicket yonder just now."

"Oh," said the mighty hunters much alarmed, "We don't want to see the lion, we are only hunting lion tracks."

Whereupon the hunters fled in terror.

So it is with the fellows who are always going to down Cleveland; they are afraid of the man and are only brave enough to bark at his mighty tracks.

I hope your readers will "beg my pardon" for referring so often to the Cleveland and Dr. Talmage; but the fact is that great personages always fill the public eye; are ever the target of public interest and curiosity, and their inconstant sayings and doings are welcomed as momentous events by most everybody.

I used to have the foolishness and temerity to sometimes steer at what I termed the "sensational sermons of Dr. Talmage." Now since I have heard him preach, I take it all back, and say that if his preaching is sensational, God send a whole avalanche of such sensations, for they contain the very "Balm of Gilead" and illuminate the way to salvation. The President and Mrs. Cleveland and her mother, Mrs. Perrine, occupied their pew and paid marked attention to Dr. Talmage last Sunday. The President appeared deeply moved by the eloquent preacher, and at times during the sermon tears rolled down his cheeks.

Talmage's sermon last Sunday morning was without question the most eloquent and convincing we ever heard or expect to hear this side of eternity.

The President is in good health and looks better than I ever saw him appear. He likes duck shooting so well that he has recently purchased a "wild duckery" shooting ground near Quantico, on the Potomac forty-five miles below Washington. His new shooting ground has a mile of water front and will be fitted up as a permanent sporting resort for him. The Potomac at Quantico is five miles wide, and ducks are abundant there.

The big Treasury building seems to be the center of interest to strangers who visit Washington. Hundreds and even thousands of visitors inspect the Treasury daily and march through the miles of corridors and seem to view everything with wonder and satisfaction. Of course the hundreds of millions of dollars in the vaults is the great magnet which draws them.

The gophers and watchmen in the building are many times amused if not provoked by impudently questioning for information. For instance, one man kicked like a steer when shown the "rogues gallery" and said he was disappointed. He no doubt expected to see a magnificent collection of costly oil paintings rivaling the Louvre at Paris, and he only found a room twenty feet square containing hundreds of small photographs of all the noted counterfeiters of every nation on the globe.

The wonderful display of counterfeit money, bonds and stamps is well worth the price of a free admission, to say nothing of the many other contraband curios. Some persons would not be satisfied if they were going to be hung. I heard some visiting ladies say the other day that they believed everybody in the Treasury was deaf and dumb. I also heard one of the watchmen say that some of these visitors could ask more questions in a minute than he could answer in a month. However, the majority of visitors are courteous and good natured, and therefore all such are treated with respectful attention by all Treasury employees and their interrogations responded to cheerfully.

Last Monday "Baby McKee," ex-President Harrison's celebrated grandson, was doing the Treasury, accompanied by several little fellows.

From Infancy

My daughter was troubled with scrofula. A swelling formed in one of her ears and broke open. It discharged freely and the whole side of her head became affected. The trouble continued ten years and she lost the hearing in that ear. After an attack of typhoid fever she was left very weak. She coughed and raised a great deal. We resorted to Hood's Sarsaparilla and after taking six bottles she was greatly improved. Now the sores are perfectly healed and she has good hearing in that ear." Mrs. M. WILKINSON, Parham, Tenn.

Hood's Sarsaparilla
Is the Only True Blood Purifier prominently in the public eye. $1; six for $5. Prepared only by C. I. Hood & Co., Apothecaries, Lowell, Mass., U. S. A.

Hood's Pills act harmoniously with Hood's Sarsaparilla.

He was treated with distinguished consideration. One Treasury official handed him a package of stamps as a souvenir of his visit. As he was given the stamps the gentleman remarked: "These are for Master Baby McKee." The youngster drew himself up proudly and exclaimed, "My name is Benjamin Harrison McKee," and took his departure, without the package and highly insulted.

Tuesday a party of Indians from the far West were at the Treasury interviewing Secretary Carlisle. The Indians were gaudily accoutred in buckskin, leathers and other dime-novel trappings, and the Treasury employees were in their turn on the qui vive to see them. One big chief had a fine looking white woman for his wife.

Judge Holeman, a Kentuckian well known at Frankfort, and now a popular employee at the Treasury Branch Printing Office, is the proud and happy possessor of a genuine Simon-pure mascot. The said mascot is a horseshoe which was cast from the left fore foot of the off horse pulling the carriage which contained President Grover Cleveland and his wife. It was five o'clock last Sunday afternoon and the President and wife had just alighted from a drive, and as the carriage was leaving the White House grounds one of the horses dropped a shoe, and Judge Holeman, who was taking a walk, saw it and picked it up. The Judge, who is a great admirer of Mrs. Cleveland, declared he would not take a thousand dollars for that horseshoe.

When the writer first started to work in the Treasury he was much impressed with the personality of numerous individuals who stratted about like they were Mr. Superbus E. Pluribus Uman's with a half dozen mortgages on the Treasury and were secretaries of the universe, etc. One elegant looking old gentleman who was large, dignified and handsome struck us at once as a very high attaché of the Treasury, and a veritable topnotcher, whose salary could not be anything less than "steven thousand per annum." I inquired who that fine looking gentleman was. The answer was that his wife had charge of the 135 clocks in the Treasury building at the magnificent pay of $40 a month.

There are some very big men in Washington and many little men. The ratio is a 100 to 1 against the little men. The little men usually get $1,200 or $1,500 a year. If they were paid a salary commensurate with their own estimate of their dignity and importance, many of them would draw not less than $200,000 per annum. As a rule though the people of Washington are very sociable, easy to get acquainted with, and strive to make strangers feel at home.

The most honorable Mr. Yang Yu, the Chinese Plenipotentiary to the United States, has recently received notice of his promotion by the Chinese Emperor to be President of the sacrificial worship, a very eminent position under the Chinese government. Mr. Yu will remain here to complete his term as Minister, which expires next June, and he will then return to China with his family.

"Things are coming to a pretty pass these days," remarked the proprietor of one of the leading downtown boarding houses, "when Congressmen are reducing their expenses. Only a few days ago I found one of my Congressmen boarders from a Southern State was looking up rooms and board for himself and wife in another house, for the reason, as his wife told me, that they wanted to reduce expenses. I charged them $50 per month for room and board for them both, and they were actually trying to get it for $10, though they finally had to pay $50. The wife told me that they wanted to save $1,000 per year out of her husband's salary of $5,000, and that she knew of others who were doing so."

Is it possible, or even probable, that the above M. C. is from Kentucky?

Congressman Talbert, of South Carolina, is one of the most fearless, eloquent and entertaining speakers on the Democratic side in the House. He says that the reason he never has opposition in his district is because he always runs on the following platform: "Be good to the poor, friendly to the rich, true to the Democrats, fair to the Republicans and always lean to the Populists."

This is even better than the Georgia con-trap which "katches 'em 'er comin' an' 'er gwine."

Talbert recently, at a night session, opposed a special pension bill which aroused the ire of a Republican Representative from Indiana, who, by the way, was born in Canada. The Indian made a bitter attack on Talbert and his native State, South Carolina. He pawed the air and frothed at the mouth with anger, and sat down trembling with emotion.

Sir, Talbert arose and quietly remarked that "the gentleman from Canada was another one of those bloody shirt non-combatants who were invincible in peace and invincible in war."

Since both Houses of Congress have passed resolutions favorable to the cause of Cuban liberty, trouble with Spain is expected by many persons. War is not desired here, but we may get into one very soon, nevertheless.

John Bull continues to flirt with Uncle Sam; at the same time the British Lion is getting ready to ally at our throat. Lord Byron aptly wrote:

The world is a bundle of hay;
Man kind are the asses that pull;
Each tug in a different way,
And the greatest of all is John Bull.

A HELPING HAND.

An Address to Young Men By Henry Ward Ulrich.

Mr. Henry Ward Ulrich of Chicago, who is here working in the interest of the Y. M. C. A. organization, addressed a large number of men in the hall in the Cox Building yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. He spoke from the verse of scripture in John 5-7, where the lame man was at the pool of Bethesda and said to Christ, "I have no man to help me, and I am helpless." He applied that to the young men who need a helping hand to assist them to be better and place them onto bed-rock and make men of them. He said some good people will pass a poor fellow by, sympathizing with him but not willing to help him out of his condition. Said he: Most of the young men are depraved, their minds are impure and their thoughts of a low nature. They get on the toboggan slide of life and go down to destruction. When they start down it is hard for them to get back. What they need is a strong hand to pluck them from the burning. Many people who have fine homes care very little for the welfare of the poor fellows who have poor ones; they are indifferent to the needs of their fellowmen. Young men are easily swayed with the current, and naturally follow the evil tendencies. Men of the devil provide gilded palaces of vice in all cities and spend thousands of dollars to attract them to the places of vice. All the places of vice are made attractive and brilliant in the cities to catch the young men.

Men are wanted—everywhere. In the daily papers we read advertisements where first-class, reliable, honest, sober, industrious, earnest and capable men are wanted; they have no use for loafers or fellows who are careless and spend their time loitering around the corners. Even saloon-keepers want reliable and honest bartenders. A Jewish merchant in Rochester advertised for a Christian bookkeeper recently. Nobody wants the fellow who is a loafer. The devil has no use for fellows who are totally depraved; the saloons put a fellow out when he is drunk and broke. Yet we wait until the fellow is down and in the mire before rendering aid.

Young men are the most potent factors for good or evil; they will control the destiny of the country; will be the fathers, business men and politicians. It is important that they be directed aright. The Young Men's Christian Association believes in the work of prevention, and reaching young men before they have become depraved.

Said Mr. Ulrich, continuing: "I observe hundreds of young men on the streets and corners and going into the saloons at night and see very few in the churches; the women and older men are there but the young men are not. They must be cared for. Every fellow is some mother's boy if not our own."

The Y. M. C. A. meets all their needs in their many departments and finely equipped buildings all over the country, in their physical, mental, social and spiritual departments. We believe in giving a fellow a place far better and finer than he gives up. Business men throughout the country have invested millions in the young men's buildings and work in general.

He said the Y. M. C. A. is not a church, nor a charitable institution, nor a place for loafers, but for the young men of business. It is a mutual improvement association and is wholly to benefit young men.

Mr. Ulrich talked for nearly an hour and at the close a number of men signed the membership roll, which has increased to 200 since he came here a week ago.

LEVI COOK, aged twenty-four, claiming Maysville as his home, was granted license Saturday at Cincinnati to marry Nellie Crawford of that city.

WILLIAM H. SCOTT, son of Henry Scott, proprietor of the Owings House of Owingsville, committed suicide by swallowing the contents of a bottle of morphine, Saturday.

WM. SMITH, John Ross, James Braerty and Sol White were before Squire Brannel this morning on charge of jumping on moving freight trains. They will have to crack rock five days for their fun.

REV. CHARLES ALLEN THOMAS, who will lecture at the Christian Church next Friday night, won the prize at the inter-collegiate oratorical contest at the Lexington Chatauqua a few years ago. He is an eloquent speaker.

Drs. A. G. BROWNING and John O'Brien amputated the right index finger of Alfred Thomas, colored, Saturday morning. Thomas had been suffering from a bone-felon, and it was found necessary to take the finger off at the second joint.

DURING the street parade by Hi Henry's Minstrels Saturday a horse became frightened on East Third street, and ran over a couple of negro boys near the Central Presbyterian Church. One of the lads escaped unhurt, but the other, Sam Lindsay, better known as Sam Small, had one of his legs badly bruised. Dr. Harover dressed the injuries.

FIFTY tax-payers of Adams County, Ohio, have petitioned the Commissioners for a thorough examination by an expert accountant of the various county offices, that they may be informed as to the truth or falsity of charges made by private citizens and press. They also urged that the examination be nonpartisan, and that no guilty man be shielded or whitewashed.

HI. HENRY's black-cork artists were greeted by a large crowd at the opera house Saturday night, and they gave one of the best minstrel entertainments seen here this season. The bright particular stars of the evening were Arthur Deming and Frank McNish, but the others did their part furnishing the fun. Deming's singing caught the crowd, and he was called back six or seven times when he sang "My Susan." Mr. Henry prides himself on his fine military band, and he certainly has a right to do so. Their music and Mr. Henry's cornet solos were greatly enjoyed.

A CARD on the outside of office door says: "Gone to lunch. Be back in ten minutes." And, the man will be there on time. That is, for some days, weeks or even months, he will. Then he will be at home occasionally for a day. He'll tell you he had a headache—a turn of cholera morbus, or maybe he'll say he had a lump in his stomach and felt too miserable to move. The lump was probably two or three ten minute lunches condensed.

The man who "bolts" his lunches will find Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets the best friend he ever met.

There is no case of biliousness, constipation, indigestion, "heart burn" or any of the rest of the night mare breeding brood, that these little "pellets" will not cure. They cure permanently. Send 21 cents in one-cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. Y. and receive Dr. Pierce's 1008 page "Common Sense Medical Adviser," profusely illustrated.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

MOTHERS, Do You Know

that Paregoric, Bateman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, many so-called Soothing Syrups, and most remedies for children are composed of opium or morphine?

Do You Know that opium and morphine are stupefying narcotic poisons?

Do You Know that in most countries druggists are not permitted to sell narcotics without labeling them poisons?

Do You Know that you should not permit any medicine to be given your child unless you or your physician know of what it is composed?

Do You Know that Castoria is a purely vegetable preparation, and that a list of its ingredients is published with every bottle?

Do You Know that Castoria is the prescription of the famous Dr. Samuel Pitcher. That it has been in use for nearly thirty years, and that more Castoria is now sold than of all other remedies for children combined?

Do You Know that the Patent Office Department of the United States, and of other countries, have issued exclusive right to Dr. Pitcher and his assigns to use the word "Castoria" and its formula, and that to imitate them is a state prison offense?

Do You Know that one of the reasons for granting this government protection was because Castoria had been proven to be absolutely harmless?

Do You Know that 35 average doses of Castoria are furnished for 33 cents, or one cent a dose?

Do You Know that when possessed of this perfect preparation, your children may be kept well, and that you may have unbroken rest?

Well, these things are worth knowing. They are facts.

The fac-simile signature of Chas. H. Pitcher is on every wrapper.

The Outlook For Fruit.

H. F. Hillenmeyer, the nurseryman of Lexington, writes to the Danville Advocate: "The outlook for the quality of the fruit crop of 1896 is not altogether encouraging. It is quite true that fungus growths are not favored by a dry season, and that all fruit plants are now very free of such, as their fruits are also likely to be, but insect life is promoted by the same conditions, and is likely to be with us in full force later on. There will certainly be a full bloom on both fruit and forest trees, because dry weather favors the development of fruit, rather than wood buds, but a crop nurtured in poverty during its embryotic condition is prone to prove abortive and feeble. This same law is equally true of minute life."

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Gladness Comes

With a better understanding of the transient nature of the many physical ills which vanish before proper efforts—gentle efforts—pleasant efforts—rightly directed. There is comfort in the knowledge that so many forms of sickness are not due to any actual disease, but simply to a constipated condition of the system, which the pleasant family laxative, Syrup of Figs, promptly removes. That is why it is the only remedy with millions of families, and is everywhere esteemed so highly by all who value good health. Its beneficial effects are due to the fact, that it is the one remedy which promotes internal cleanliness, without debilitating the organs on which it acts. It is therefore all important, in order to get its beneficial effects, to note when you purchase, that you have the genuine article, which is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co., and sold by all reputable druggists.

If in the enjoyment of good health, and the system is regular, then laxatives or other remedies are not needed. If afflicted with any actual disease, one may be commended to the most skillful physicians, but if in need of a laxative, then one should have the best, and with the well-informed everywhere, Syrup of Figs stands highest and is most largely used and gives most general satisfaction.

BAD TIMES?

Well, we should say so. Those Clocks and Watches are too badly out of fix to be of any use. They've lost their time entirely. You'll lose your time, too, if you're not provided with good Clocks and watches. We have a full supply of both, all accurate timekeepers and in perfect order. Better Watches than ours are not manufactured. Whatever the price of any watch we carry, it's the best of its kind and a full value. Get a timepiece; get the best; get ours.
